MONDAY

Read Esther 1 – What stood out to you in your initial reading?

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

Read Esther 1 – No matter who we are, from ruler to kingdom subject, there is always a need to redemption and grace. How does Esther 1 show this need among the people under King Ahasuerus' rule and for King Ahasuerus himself?

THURSDAY

Read Esther 1 – Doing things to show power or gain control over others is nothing new as we see from reading Esther 1 and in the reaction of the king and his counselors towards the queen's refusal to obey the king. Can you think of some ways this is happening in your community, neighborhood, or home? Pray and ask God what you can personally do to confront these issues.

FRIDAY

Read Esther 1 – What do you learn about the culture and common practices of the people in Esther 1? Knowing many Jews were living in this area and trying to keep to their traditions, what difficulties do you think they encountered on a regular basis? How does this compare with how your faith practices contradict your surrounding culture?

What was the product of his trusting someone whose full character he had not investigated? Have you ever put your trust in someone who was unworthy of that position?
